

Seed Detectives: Identify the seed Clues

1. Clue a): This seed makes big flowers.
Clue b): The flower always faces the sun.

2. Clue a): This is a root vegetable.
Clue b): When you are asked to think of a vegetable, this is the one most people say.

3. Clue a): You can eat these raw or cooked.
Clue b): Sometimes they make you cry.

4. Clue a): This is not the kind of flower you put in a vase.
Clue b): It goes really well with cheese sauce.

5. Clue a): These come in a pod.
Clue b): Also the name of the 16th letter of the alphabet.

6. Clue a): These come hot or sweet.
Clue b): You can sprinkle it on your food a bit like salt, if you like it.

7. Clue a): Happy in a salad.
Clue b): It's a leaf that you can put in your sandwich.

8. Clue a): Sometimes we eat the one that pops.
Clue b): Sometimes we call this sweet.

9. Clue a): The name of this in England sounds a bit French, but in America it sounds a bit Italian.
Clue b): Sometimes could be mistaken for a shorter, fatter cucumber.

10. Clue a): It may be a weedy leaf but it's said to make you strong and has lots of iron in it.
Clue b): Popeye's favourite, he eats it straight from the tin.

11. Clue a): It looks like a mini tree, but you can eat it.
Clue b): President Bush (Junior) was said to not like it. (probably more of a clue for the adults)

12. Clue a): Said to have been quite a runner.
Clue b): Long, thin and green looking, definitely not baked.

13. Clue a): Be reddy for this clue to beet you!
Clue b): Eating this may change the colour of your wee wee! (not for ever!)

14. Clue a) You can roast these for you Sunday dinner.
Clue b) They look a bit like a fat, pale carrot.

15. Clue a): This is an herb said to go well with fish.
Clue b): It rhymes with pill and fill and bill.

